

resting position: arm folded pointed in the positive x-direction first movement: aligns the arm in the same plane as the button by rotating the base and moves the end-effector to the final z-position second movement: with the arm now aligned to the button, approaches the button parallel with the floor without rotating the base